Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of February 7, 1979, concerning the records of the Warren Commission.

I am sorry that we cannot furnish you free copies of the documents made available for research in 1978. There is, however, a balance of $57.00 in your deposit account. We shall be pleased to furnish you the copies and charge them to your account if you want us to do so.

Sincerely,

Jane F. Smith
